

Communications serves as the Railroad Commission's primary contact with the public, media and stakeholder groups. Communications informs these groups about the agency's actions to protect public safety and the environment.

CORE RESPONSIBILITIES

Maintain Communication Platforms:

- Website administration
- Social media @txrrc: Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn & YouTube
- Produce informational & instructional video.
- News releases
- External and internal newsletters
- Annual Year in Review report

Public Outreach:

- Respond to press inquiries
- Attend conferences, exhibitions and community events
- Host domestic and foreign government officials & delegations
- Coordinate staff speaking engagements

Coordinates Special Events and Training:

- RRC's Annual Regulatory Conference
- Community workshops
- Online resources

Serves as RRC ombudsman

- Responds to inquiries from the public & industry representatives

PUBLIC DATA & STATISTICS

- RRC Energy News
- Year in Review
- News Releases
 - Monthly Oil & Gas Production
 - Monthly Permitting
 - Penalties assessed by RRC

Contact Information

R. J. Desilva, Spokesperson, 512-936-3520
RJ.Desilva@rrc.texas.gov

Gaye McElwain, Public Outreach, 512-463-5126; gaye.mcelwain@rrc.texas.gov

Communications@rrc.texas.gov • Publicassist@rrc.texas.gov