The notice provided that members of the public could participate in the meeting through an advance registration process described in the notice, and that members of the public could also view the open meeting as described in the notice. The open meeting occurred as noticed and was conducted in accordance with applicable law. Persons duly registered to participate were provided the opportunity to speak.

Item 1 on the open meeting agenda revised the notice provided under Item 189 for the May 5, 2020 open meeting to name the specific rules at issue. Item 1 also addressed the ratification of actions taken and temporary exceptions approved and issued at the Commission's May 5, 2020 open meeting in relation to a petition to prorate production that had been docketed by the Commission as Oil & Gas Docket No. OG-20-00003167.
