RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following is an exception to Item 10, Specifications as to Quality & Legality of Shipments, in No. 57, and reissues thereof. The additional paragraphs will apply to this tariff.

ITEM 10 SPECIFICATIONS AS TO QUALITY & LEGALITY OF SHIPMENTS

Petroleum Products will be accepted for transportation at such time as Petroleum Products of similar quality and color are currently being transported from origin points to destinations along Carrier's line and meet the specifications issued by Carrier in its specification manual provided upon request.

The following is an exception to Item 25, Nominations and Minimum Volume, in No. 57, and reissues thereof. The additional paragraphs will apply to this tariff.

ITEM 25 NOMINATIONS AND MINIMUM VOLUME

The minimum volume of any one Petroleum Product of quality and specifications described herein which will be accepted at one point of origin from one shipper shall be [U] 10,000 barrels.

Any shipper desiring pipeline transportation of Petroleum Products under this tariff, must, on or before the [U] 25th day of the month, submit to Carrier a notice of shipment of the volume and type of Petroleum Products to be transported during the following month; otherwise, Carrier will be under no obligation to accept such Petroleum Products for transportation.

Shippers will be required to schedule their Petroleum Products for delivery into Carrier's manifold or suction manifold at point of origin to meet the cycle within which the Petroleum Product will move. Petroleum Product shall be available for shipment [U] twenty-four (24) hours prior to the scheduled date for movement into Carrier's system.

Nominations for transportation of any specified Petroleum Product shall become operative in the order in which the Nominations therefore are received. However, since Petroleum Products are pumped in a certain sequence for efficient operation, Carrier reserves the right to specify the sequence of transportation of Petroleum Products.
